PORTRAIT

DOSSIER I · ◈

EDEN

Eden Selah Osei · 21
Covenant Daughter of Aurem, 39th Trial
She put her own name in. Sector Seven's first.

Celeste raised her out in the outer districts. Everything Eden knows about God, she learned at that kitchen table, and she's been mad about some of it for a long time. Nobody ever noticed.

The first ten pages are what we already know about her. The last seven are where you get to work.

DOSSIER I · ◈

EDEN

Her name was the first thing anybody ever decided for her.

If it's printed, it's decided, and the tag tells you which file it came from. The lines are for whatever the book hasn't figured out yet. TL timeline · TR trials · DR3 draft three

FULL NAME, THE WAY THE MINISTRY HAS IT

EDEN SELAH OSEI

OSEI, EDEN S. · Aurem · Sector Seven, outer districts TL

HER FIRST NAMES

Eden is the garden, where a woman got blamed for wanting to know something. Selah came from Miriam. It means pause, and you'll find it all over the Psalms. TL

HER LAST NAME

Osei came from her father, Thomas, who worked service jobs in Aurelia. He left when she was one. Her file says he was relocated, and that's true. It just doesn't say he asked to go. She's still carrying his name. TL

WHO NAMED HER

Miriam picked Selah, and by then her marriage was already wearing her down. Celeste was in the room when Eden was born, and she knew this baby was different. Later on she gave Eden another name, one they only use inside the house where the Empire can't get to it. TL

THE HOUSE NAME

This one isn't decided yet. Figure it out here, and write down what Celeste said when she gave it to her.

EVERYTHING PEOPLE CALL HER · TL · TR · THE LAST ROW IS YOURS

NAME	WHO CALLS HER THAT	WHAT IT DOES TO HER
Eden Selah Osei	The Ministry, on paper	Her file's already open before she says a word
Covenant Daughter of Aurem	The Broadcast and the Boulevard boards	Now millions of people are attached to her name
Eden	Celeste, at the stove	It's the one room where nobody's scoring her

Her birthday and the years she grew up in are on the next page.

STANDING

Every question on this page has two answers: what the Ministry wrote down and what's really going on. Write the clerk's version first, then write how she actually spends her days. Keep that gap in mind, because it shows up in every scene she's in.

HER HOUSE, HER PROVINCE, HER BLOOD. WHICH ONE WOULD SHE GIVE UP FIRST?

WHAT'S HER OFFICIAL JOB IN DOMINION? WRITE IT THE WAY A CLERK WOULD.

WHAT DOES SHE ACTUALLY DO ALL DAY, HOUR BY HOUR?

WHAT'S THE FIRST THING SHE LEARNED ABOUT GOD, AND WHO TAUGHT HER?

DECIDED DATE

FROM VOLUME ONE

Hagar, p. 65
Esther, p. 72
Women of the Text, p. 64
Who Says What It Means, p. 120

MARGINALIA